

Sallywag Press presents 4 East Anglian children's book author/illustrators at the Essex Book Festival

Sunday August 29th

11.00 Deborah Chancellor: <https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/scallywag-press-presents-deborah-chancellor-and-milly-cow-gives-milk-tickets-152741866033>

In her fun Follow My Food writing workshop, Deborah will read her new book Milly Cow Gives Milk, and help little ones explore the food they eat every day, to find out where it comes from and how it ends up on the table,

12.30 Inbal Leitner

<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/scallywag-press-presents-inbal-leitner-and-the-longest-strongest-thread-tickets-152735131891>

Inspired by her book The Longest Strongest Thread, Inbal will be running a workshop to help children reflect on how connections with loved ones stay strong, even if they can't always see or be near them, using pre-inked papers and coloured pencils to create a story and collage.

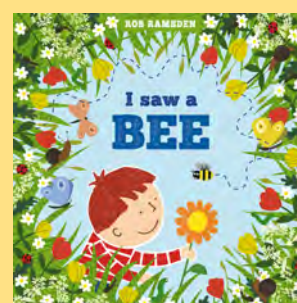

2.00 Rob Ramsden

<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/scallywag-press-presents-rob-ramsden-and-his-book-i-saw-a-bee-tickets-152732596307>

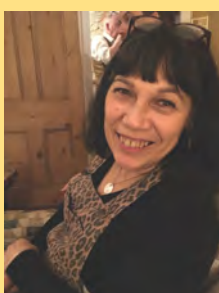

Join Rob Ramsden as he reads from his brilliant picture book I saw a Bee. He'll also be exploring the nature of and importance of bees through an activity inspired by Cressing Temple Barns' own buzzy inhabitants.

3.30 Marjoke Henrichs

<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/scallywag-press-presents-majoke-henrichs-with-her-debut-book-no-said-rabbit-tickets-152746582139>

No! said Rabbit is currently shortlisted for the Booktrust Storytime Prize and has sold in 11 languages round the world! Join Marjoke as she gives a story reading and drawing workshop for creative little ones.
