FOLLOW MY FOOD is a stylish, narrative non-fiction series designed to help children understand and appreciate where their food comes from. The books encourage children to be environmentally aware and respect animals and the people who produce food.

In the fourth title, a little girl helps Granny Pip as she plants fruit bushes, feeds them with fertiliser, prunes and then harvests. Growing fruit is hard work, but eating it is delicious!

Full of facts and with a simple quiz and extra information at the back, the books in this collection are relatable for very young children, but will also engage their parents and carers.

DEBORAH CHANCELLOR lives in Saffron Walden. She has written over a hundred books for children, and been shortlisted for the Little Rebels Award.

JULIA GROVES lives in Norwich. Her previous baby books and picture books have been nominated for the Progressive Pre-School Awards.

If you should ever get a rhinoceros for a pet, you're in for a surprise. It won't chase a ball. Or a stick. Or a frisbee. In fact, according to the experts, a rhinoceros does only two things: pop balloons and poke holes in kites. But don't be discouraged. As you'll discover in this book, rhinoceroses can do more—so much more—than that!

'Jon Agee's My Rhinoceros is a genuine masterpiece. Even better, every kid will love it'

MAURICE SENDAK

'This charming and funny story is a joy to read to EYFS classes and a good text to use when explaining to younger children people often have unexpected and surprising talents.'

The Wimbledon were sleeping. It was very, very late, When Wilma heard a spooky sound, which made her sit up straight. "That's very odd," said Walter. "I don't recognize the tune . . . "It's only Stanley," Walter said. "He's howling at the moon."

Whoever heard of a dog who can sing, cook and do DIY around the house? Not until the very end do we, or the hapless Wimbledon family, see just exactly what Stanley the dog has been planning all along!

'Oh, it's fun, this book. Absurd, silly, laugh-out-loud funny. Perfect for a read-aloud. Perfect for guessing what happens next. Agee has done it again.'
